Series Of Attack On Christians

The violence against Muslims in India which has now become pan Indian needs to be seen with the violence and vendetta against Christians. Unfortunately the media tends to ignore the violence against Christian. Human rights groups which monitor atrocities against Christians in India, have been recording regularly the cases of violence against Christians by Hindutva groups from all states. But they have largely been unnoticed in the media or even in the human right circles. Recent attacks on churches especially in Uttar Pradesh which is one of the most populated state of India have drawn the attention of the media. Reports from attacks on and hate speech against Christians have also come from other parts of India, especially Chhattisgarh and Karnataka.

The members of the team were Prashant Tandon (Sr. Journalist), Nadeem Khan (United Against Hate), Mrs. Minakshi Singh (Unity of Compassion), Laeeq Ahmad Khan (United Against Hate), Alishan Zafri (Journalist).

The team visited Roorkee on. This report is based on our physical visit to the site, our meeting and discussion with the members of the Christian community and non-Christians community.

Roorkee Church attack

3rd October 2020

“More than 200 people allegedly barged into a church in Roorkee (Uttarakhand), vandalised the premises and attacked people assembled there for prayers on Sunday.”

Mrs. Sadhna Lance left her house at 9:30 to conduct the Sunday prayers. It was an unusual morning for Sadhna and her two daughters, Eva and Pearl. The Church's surrounding had scores of unusual visitors. Before the family could even think what was about to happen, a mob of reportedly 250 to 300 people attacked the Church.

Victim testimonies

- Only 12 people were present in the Church when the mob attack happened. A 50+ year old man allegedly held Pearl Lance, the younger daughter of the pastor by her shoulder from behind while a tall man around 30 molested her and some women slapped and abused her. Meanwhile, they also snatched her phone away. “I had never seen those men. They held me tightly while the women abused and attacked me and the man stole my phone and molested me,” Pearl alleged.

- Rajat Kumar, the helper at the Church was attacked by the mob with iron rods. He sustained serious injuries after being allegedly hit with iron rods multiple times on his head. "They dragged me by my neck to the ground floor while raining blows on my face and back. I became unconscious after I was hit with a rod on my head." Rajat's face and right eye were badly bruised and swollen.
- While the mob had alleged that the Church is illegal and unlawfully functioning on a private property, the Pastor's family disputed these allegations and said that they are affiliated to the Full Gospel Fellowship of India under the society's act. The family also shared their land sale deed agreement with the fact finding team to clear any doubts about their ownership of the property. Dickens Rockwell Lance was the Pastor of House of Prayers from 1988 when the small Church was built in Roorkee until his death due to COVID-19 in September 2020. Until 2010, the family stayed in the Church. However, in his lifetime the Church never faced any such threat. After the pastor's death, the Church's activities came to a halt. For over 4 months, the Church remained closed because of the COVID situation. However, his wife Sadhna had recently started prayer services again in January 2021 but it was again shut down shortly after the second wave of the Corona virus. "Very few people attend the prayer meetings physically and around 30 people attend online sessions. Earlier, when my husband was alive over 200 people attended the Church but we never invited outsiders to avoid any trouble," she said.
- Eva Lance, the elder daughter, alleged that the family had reported suspicious activity to the police at least four times before the mob attack on Sunday. "We received hateful anti-Christian threats by unknown men who followed us on Wednesday before the attack. They accused us of conversion and threatened violence. I had sent an e-mail to the SP rural, visited the police station, and registered a formal complaint on 2nd October with the Civil lines police. We were assured of security by the police but no help came. Even on the day of the attack, we kept calling the police but they only came 1 hour after the mob had done the damage," she said.
- Eva informed that usually the Sunday prayer services start at 10 AM. The mob entered the Church at that exact time. They vandalized everything- chairs, walls, fans, religious symbols, boards, and music instruments. As soon as the mob of roughly 250 300 people, a quarter of them women, invaded the Church, they destroyed the CCTV cameras. "They were armed with sticks and iron rods. They were angrily chanting religious slogans like Jai Shri Ram, HarHarMahadev," Sadhna said.

- "They pulled my hair and slapped me. They attacked my husband Sumit and coerced us to handover the DVR. One man took the DVR and ran away," said Akshi.

Neighbours Testimony:

- The Fact Finding Team also talked to neighbours of Lance family. They have a supportive neighbourhood of mainly Hindus and lone Muslim family. When we came there Sadhna Lance's neighbours came out and expressed their solidarity and support to the Lance family. RK Sharma their nearest neighbor – a retired IIT Roorkee official pledged his full support to the Lance. MrAlam who lives behind her house recalled DR Lance and how cooperative and joyful person he was.
- Arti Arora who lives in the same lane told us that 'we live here like one family'. Raj Singh, another neighbour of Sadhana Lance, a retired police inspector of UP Police said FIR with conversion allegation is baseless and they (Lance Family) are not into any such activity.
- Neighbours Yogesh Chandra and Gopal Rai Arora also echoed the similar sentiments in support of Lance family.

A counter FIR was lodged against the pastor's family by a woman alleging forced conversion. The Christian family has been booked under several serious sections of the IPC- 153 (promoting religious disharmony), 395 (dacoity) 120b (criminal conspiracy) and other sections. Dismissing the charges, Sadhna said, "This is a false case. I am a retired government teacher and my daughters work to support the family. We take no donations and the church does not even have a bank account. Nobody offered that woman 2 lakh rupees. We do not know her. She has accused that I attacked her at 8:45 AM but my CCTV shows that I was not present there at that time. Do you think that we can do a dacoity?" Sadhna questioned.

APCR, UAH and United Christian Forum Fact Finding Team comprising of civil society members and journalists visited Rookie on 10th October, 2021 and met the victims, Ms Sadhana Lance (wife of late Pastor), their neighbours and recorded their testimonies. The team also visited the vandalized Church and saw the damage that had been done by the violent mob.

The Findings:

- 1: Despite prior complaints by Lance family Roorkee Police did not provide security to the Church and family prior to attack.
- 2: At the time of attack police were informed and calls were made to Civil Lines police station which is less than a kilometer away from the Church but the police team arrived when the violent mob dispersed on its own after the attack.

3. Prima facie attack looked meticulously planned to build a fake narrative of conversion. Breaking of CCTV camera at the entrance of prayer hall and taking away of DVR indicate the planning and motive of not leaving evidence behind.

Hindutva Mob Attacked Christians At Mau

10 October 2021

Police in Uttar Pradesh's Mau has taken several people into custody after receiving a complaints from members of a rightwing Hindutva group that they were allegedly involved in converting people into Christianity.

A regular prayer service was attacked by a Hinduvamob some of whom claimed to be activists of Bajrang Dal as well as Hindu Yuva Vahini. The group then forced the Christian worshipers, including the priest to the police station. According to reports, the Hindutva mob was accusing the group of 'converting' people. However, the devotees including one Vijendra Rajbhar, said they had been praying here regularly. According to the First Information Report (FIR no. 410/2021) filed by one Radheshyam Singh the worshipers have been accused of forcing people to convert to Christianity through allurements, as well as "violating Covid-19 protocol, using musical instruments, consuming narcotics and other intoxicants."

The Mau district in-charge of the rightwing group Hindu JagranManch, BhanuPratap Singh, and other members complained to police that a pastor had organised a prayer meet at a man's house in Sahadatpura Colony. The Hindutva group allegedly reached out to police following a ruckus by residents of the area who had objected to the prayer meet.

Those arrested included Pastor Abraham Shakeel Ahmed, his wife Pratibha, Vijendra Rajbhar and Geeta Devi, the couple in whose house the worship took place. Rajbhar said that no forcible conversions were taking place and that the worship in his house had been a regular one. Even the pastor is heard saying in a video clip that anyone can attend the worship without discrimination and that they pray for those who are unwell or need any kind of support and prayer. The First Information Report alleges that the pastor and others "insulted Hindu deities using abusive language," reported Matters India, adding that the devotees also abused the prime minister and the Uttar Pradesh chief minister."

The seven have reportedly been booked under the Prohibition of Unlawful Religious Conversion Ordinance, 2020, which was brought with an ordinance last year.

Extremists targeted two Nuns At Mau

12 October 2021

Over a dozen Christians were targeted including two nuns, mobs accused them of conversion, thrashed, and dragged them to police station

Sister Gracy Monteiro, a school principal, who belongs to the Mirpur Catholic Mission, her colleague Sister Roshni Minj, and their driver were attacked by a right-wing vigilante mob while boarding a bus to Varanasi at town bus stand of Mau. The mob dragged them to the police station after beating them up and abusing them. She, a Ursuline Franciscan nun, had come to the city bus stand around noon, with her colleague Sister Minj, and school driver (name withheld to protect identity) when a mob of Hindutva radicals, dragged them out, roughed up the driver and forcibly took the three to the police station where they were kept till 6 p.m. Sister Monteiro says she kept asking the mobs who they were, and kept trying to prevent them from hitting the driver, a non-Christian, even as the mob continued abusing and attacking and accusing the three of religious conversion. The driver who has worked in the school for a long time, has not converted to Christianity, and now was harassed and victimised for merely being with the sisters.

Victim testimonies

- Sister Gracy Monteiro said "There were just three of us. I was accompanying Sister Minj who was going home to Ranchi to visit her dying father. As we did not get the direct bus, we went to the Mau bus stand and SrMinj went to ask about the bus, while the driver and I stayed in the car. Then a mob came and attacked the driver dragged him out, forced us nuns to walk to the police station," she recalled, adding that they were perhaps identified as Christians because they were in the nun's uniform of cream-coloured salwar kameez and the convent's name was painted on the side of their Bolero.
- "They said get out of the car, I asked them why. They started hitting our driver, and I told them not to hit us as I was going to answer whatever questions they had. They told us to 'get out of the car and we will show you who we are'," she recalled the mob took out the vehicle's key and made them walk to the police station. It was more shocking for her that no policeman intervened when the mob attacked.
- "We were in shock, this was sudden and unprovoked. Sister Minj was already under stress as her father is critical. Even the police asked us 'are you converting'." It was hours later, that an inspector showed up and spoke to them, "We showed him all our proof. Even the photo of SrMinj's critically ill father. Then the inspector said it was by mistake that we were picked up." However, while there were no apologies, the nuns say it was the most traumatic experience,
