

Attack on Christians in Punjab

A Fact Finding Report

Joint Fact Finding by:

Association for Protection of Civil Rights,
Unity Christian Forum and Civil Society Members

INTRODUCTION

A spate of attacks against Christians and Churches have entered Punjab with fresh incidents of violence. Punjab largely has been a peaceful state with its legacy of social harmony is so far was untouched by an atmosphere of hate that has been created in other parts of the country.

The violence against the Muslims in India which had now become an Indian phenomenon needs to be seen with the violence and vendetta against Christians. Unfortunately, the mainstream media tends to ignore it and needs greater civil society intervention to curb this violence which is in the initial stages. Human Rights groups that monitor the atrocities against the Christians in India are regularly recording the cases of violence by vigilante groups from all states. Earlier there had been reports of attacks on Churches in the States of Uttar Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, and Karnataka but now attacks had taken place in the State of Punjab which never had such kind of attacks against the Christian community earlier.

In the age of fake news and divisive agenda being spread through social media with many distorted versions of the context and these events, a rapid assessment of the ground situation was necessary so that the facts, as they are, can be placed before the people, Centre and State Government of Punjab. To study the fresh spate of attacks on Christians, the motive and forces behind unprovoked violence, its impact on society, and remedial steps taken by the administration a joint Fact-Finding Team of civil society groups visited Tarn Taran and Amritsar districts and met representatives of the Christian community, the victim of violence, and other stakeholders.

The team comprised Mr Nadeem Khan (Association for Protection of Civil Rights APCR), Mr Prashant Tandon Sr. Journalist), Mrs Meenakshi Singh (Unity Christian Forum), Mr Sanjay Macee, and Mohammad Mobashshir Aneeq (Advocate) visited the Church which was attached to the town of Patti Tarn Tara District and Amritsar on 18.09.2022 and recorded testimonies of victims of violence and Church officials.

Incidents of Violence

Attack on Christian prayer in Daduana village in Amritsar on 28.08.2022

- As a usual practice of Sunday - a prayer, preaching, and healing session organized by Pastor Sukhvinder Raja, who belongs to the Pentecostal Christian denomination was disrupted by a large group of people which the eyewitness and victims describe as Nihangs a Sikh warrior order, at Daduana village in the Amritsar, over allegations of forced conversion.
- The Pastor alleged that it was a regular Sunday when around 500 Nihangs, a Sikh warrior order, armed with sharp-edged weapons, sticks, and firearms attacked the assembly at around 11:30 am when prayer was going on. Pastor Sukhvinder Raja further alleged that it was him who was their target, but the mob failed to recognize and spot him, and was somehow rescued by the devotees. The devotees locked him inside a room and closed to the promises. The Pastor further alleged that Nihangs had already begun gathering since nine in the morning and had tried to block access to the place of gathering. “As I told the worshipers who were around 200 mostly women and children that it was the day of their examination and that Jesus is alive, the assailants barged into the tent” Pastor told the Fact-Finding Team narrating the incident. They did not spare anyone and anything. Around 45 people suffered injuries the Pastor narrated. Pastor Sukhvinder Raja alleged all that happened in presence of the strong police force which was already there as the Nihangs had started gathering.
- Thereafter FIR No. 0233/2022 was registered at Police Station Jandiala on 29.08.2022 against Major Singh Nihang and unknown Nihang under sections 295, 296, 427, 148, and 149 of IPC but no arrests have been taken till the time of writing this report. Following the attack in the last week of August, the Sunday Prayers are now discontinued at the Church as the community including Pastor Sukhvinder Raja felt threatened. The prayer meetings temporarily have been shifted to Pastor’s residence with reduced participation.
- It had been alleged by a leader of the Nihang Mr. Baba Major Singh that mass conversions were going on for the past few months in the name of prayer sessions. They had to take “appropriate actions” themselves, he said, after the police administration despite complaints and resistance by locals failed to take action. The organizers made to sit innocent Sikhs in the programs to lure them into conversions by the so-called miracles,” the leader alleged.
- At 12:30 midnight, a group of four masked men forcefully entered the Infant Jesus Catholic Church campus in a Patti village of the Tarn Taran district of Punjab and attacked the security guard, and held him captive at gunpoint. These ‘armed’ intruders vandalized a statue of Jesus Christ and Mother Mary at the entrance of the prayer hall.

Attack on Infant Jesus Catholic Church, Patti, Tarn Taran 31.08.2022

- At the time of the incident around four people were there inside the Church campus which includes Father Thomas Poochalil his two associates and a local guard. As the guard was on his night duty around 12:30 AM four unidentified masked men entered a Church campus and held him captive at gunpoint. Thereafter they climbed the first floor of the church, vandalized the statues of Jesus Christ and Mother Mary, and took away their heads. The unidentified and masked intruders also set a Baleno car parked on the Church premises on fire before they left the campus. It was alleged by the guard that the incident was 'meticulously planned' as the vandals did not stay on the campus for more than 25 minutes.
- After vandals left the Church campus the security guard informed Father Thomas Poochalil, who called the Station House officer (SHO) of the police station Sadar Patti who thereon sent two police officers after 15 minutes, and registered FIR No. 0148/2022 against the unknown accused under sections 295-A, 452, 427, 34 of IPC, and 25 of the Arms Act, 1959. The police thereafter took away the CCTV footage of the incident captured in cameras installed on the Church campus. The Fact-Finding Team has no access to the footage but has seen the placement of two CCTV cameras that are facing the entrance and the statues which were vandalized.
- Till the time of writing this report no arrest has taken place in this incident either. However, two constables of Punjab Police are deployed at the Church after the incident.
- In response to the attack, the Director General of Police (DGP) Mr. Gaurav Yadav constituted Special Investigation Team (SIT) headed by the Ferozepur Range Inspector General (IG). The SIT also includes the Tarn Taran SSP and the SP (Investigations). The SIT has been tasked to conduct a day-to-day investigation into the case and submit a final report to the competent court soon.

Attack on Pastor Sukhdev Mark Karnail Singh on 15.09.2022

- On 15.09.2022 Pastor Sukhdev Mark Karnail Singh was distributing pamphlets and books (propagating Christianity) at the Ambala Cantt bus stop. Pastor Sukhdev Mark Karnail Singh told a member of the Fact-Finding Team “A Sardar was listening to me and patiently approached me and asked for the phone number. I gave my contact number and a few books to him after he sought to know more about Jesus Christ. One day, he rang me up and asked if he can drop him at Sri Guru Ram Das Ji International Airport, Amritsar. As I was a part-time cab driver driving an Indigo car for a living, I agreed to drop him at the Sri Guru Ram Das Ji International Airport, Amritsar. Instead of the Airport took he took me to a deserted street near the Celebration Mall on the pretext of collecting his Air ticket. On his way, he dialled a few contact numbers, and seven people reached Celebration Mall in a few minutes. As I was about to take out the luggage from the vehicle's boot unidentified men began stabbing me with knives. Before I realized anything, they disappeared leaving me on the spot. With blood oozing out from the body, he said, I gathered courage and drove to the nearest police post from where cops rushed him to government-run Guru Nanak Hospital for treatment.
- The Police had recorded his statement and registered an FIR No. 0268/2022 with offences under sections 323, 324, 341,34 of IPC at Police Station Sadar Amritsar on 16.09.2022.

Recommendations

1. Government of Punjab and the administration must take immediate and effective confidence-building steps and ensure the safety of Christians and other minority community and their religious places living in the state.
2. Strong legal action and arrests of trouble makers involved in acts of violence against Christians must be done urgently to establish rule of law and so that citizens can lead a peaceful life without fear.
3. Inter Faith meetings must be organized for social harmony and peace committees must be formed involving religious leaders, members of civil society, district administration, and eminent personalities to prevent the occurrence of violence against the minority community.
